

Grade 4 Poster Image

Poster Notes

This teenage girl was sitting outside a Tim Horton's in downtown Calgary at 7:00a.m. All her belongings are surrounding her, and it is likely that she spent a cool and uncomfortable night right there on that busy corner. This image speaks to how so many people who live on the streets often feel: that they are invisible, forgotten and lonely.